

BIKE Transalp stage details online

Hamburg, December 7th, 2016 – Just a few weeks after the 2017 BIKE Transalp powered by Sigma stage towns got unveiled the respective stage profiles and descriptions for the 20th event edition of the seven-day mountain bike stage race, which will take place from July 16 to 22, 2017, have been put online.

On their way from Mayrhofen to Riva del Garda participants of the anniversary race edition will conquer well-known and classic cols like Pfitscherjoch or Munt da Rina whilst also entering untamed terrain at the end of the mountain bike week. In total, the field consisting of the average Joe and pros alike has to master a total distance of 539.80 km and 18,185 metres of climbing.

“We had a dream for the anniversary route. Our goal was to offer the full dose of mountain biking over the course of seven days and to offer exciting tracks in the most beautiful alpine world. We were going for a route which is worth a jubilee celebration. I'm more than confident that we achieved our goal,” Race Director Marc Schneider said.

As a result, hundredths of mountain bikers have already signed up for their 2017 season's highlight with registration still open on online-registration.de.

Further information on the route and each and every stage are published on bike-transalp.de already.

BIKE Transalp powered by Sigma

The BIKE Transalp powered by Sigma is the most famous stage race for mountain bike teams of two. Since its inaugural edition back in 1998, the route led in eight and from 2014 on, in seven stages across the main ridge of the Alps to Italy.

In 2017, the event for pros and the average Joe alike will take place from July 16 till 22 celebrating its 20th anniversary and cover about 539.80 km and 18,185 metres of climbing. The jubilee edition kicks off in Mayrhofen and leads via Brixen, St. Vigil, St. Christina, Kaltern, Trento and Lavarone to Riva del Garda where the tradition-rich classic will conclude at the shores of Lake Garda for the 17th time already.
